

DOUBLE ANGEL FOUNDATION

Double Angel High School Scholarships – Class of 2012 “For the Love of the Game”

Dillon and Logan Dixey, for whom the Double Angel Foundation was formed, tragically never had the chance to graduate from high school. However, their spirit carries on as the Parker non-profit 501(c)(3) organization honors their passion for baseball and lifelong potential by providing scholarships to graduating seniors from high schools in Parker.

QUALIFICATIONS AND SELECTION CRITERIA

Award recipients must:

- Be graduating in the Class of 2012 (from one of the 4 high schools below) and be accepted at an institution of higher learning
- Have participated in his high school baseball program at least one year (any level of team). This award is not based on talent, but honors those with a love of baseball, which is demonstrated through dedication, passion and character on and off the field
- Have maintained a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0
- Demonstrate his/her future potential through well-roundedness, integrity, initiative, “heart” and service to others
